Line Dancing: Pat Paxson stated that the group has a couple of new people and that they are doing their thing.

Travel Club: Brian Smith stated the group has some new people and it is now up to 60 participants. On April 27th we are planning to go to St. Johns Inn for their Luau, Boone Plantation in Charleston and a 5-day Carnival Cruise out of Charleston. In June, we are planning a wine tasting at Dublin Winery. There is also a Dragon Boat Race at Market Commons coming up.

Old Business

Shuffleboard: There was a discussion with regards to shuffleboard being self-sufficient the same as Bocce. Therefore, shuffleboard does not need to report to Activities.

Casino Night: Debi Perry stated that Cathy Smith and Debbie Rebocho had prepared an Informational Note with regards to Casino Night which Debi read and advised that she would prepare for each Phase and distribute to the representative of each Phase.

April Brunch: Jean Hohenberger stated that the menu is set, and we are gathering prices and Jeff DeMaio is set. I am having a meeting at the end of the week with my committee. Currently, we have 56 reservations.

Yappy Hour: Pat Paxson advised that she has 21 reservations for dogs and 24 reservations for residents. She had an example of the towel she would be distributing. Anybody who signs up now will receive a towel, but the towel will not have the dog's name. Pat advised that someone had told her about dog ice cream Debbie Rebocho stated that Walmart sells ice cream and there are 4 in a package.

Jazz in the Park: Bob Smith advised that the Band is set, and Debbie Rebocho stated that the food truck is confirmed.

New Business

Memorial Day: Debbie Rebocho stated that she and Herman would chair the event. The cost would be $10/person. The menu would be hamburgers, hot dogs, potato salad, macaroni salad, beer, water and soda. There would be a 50/50 drawing, duck derby and bocce, shuffleboard would be available. They are also thinking about beer and wine bong. Pat Paxson made a motion to encumber $700, seconded by Arlene Buckley and carried. The time would be 1:00 – 4:00.

Ice Cream Social: Cathy Smith stated that she and Debbie Rebocho are still working on, but the date is June 11th.

Kentucky Derby: Elizabeth Borkowski stated that she had gotten an invitation to a Kentucky Derby Party and thought that it would be a great way for Myrtle Trace to celebrate the 148th Kentucky Derby. She stated she would be willing to help, and Mary Hall stated she would help also. Pat Paxson stated that there should be horses in the backroom. There was a discussion as to whether to charge for the event. The date would be May 7th from 5:00 – 9:00. Bill Fox stated that there should be a folder with a lot of information from a previous event. Bob Smith advised that we need a chairperson for the event. Debbie Rebocho and Cathy Smith volunteered to chair. It was decided that this event would be combined with the May Potluck. The information for the event needs to be given to Ted Ackley by April 22nd for the May News and Views.

Pat Paxson made a motion to encumber $200, seconded by Sue Rudnicki and carried.

Adjourn: With no further business, Sue Rudnicki made a motion to adjourn, seconded by Mary Hall with all in favor to adjourn at 7:45.
